Dear friends of Hotel Gračanica,

Our artesian mineral water, which we found in 2012 by chance when drilling for our geothermal heating and airconditioning system and which comes by itself from a depth of 120 m, has from early on become known for its healing qualities, and many come to fill up bottles at the fountain in our garden (for free). One neighbour has been cured from his chronic gastritis, three visitors told us that their kidney stones which, according to their doctors, had to be removed surgically, disappeared after three days to two weeks of drinking the water, one was cured from a duodenum ulcer, and many others found relief from heartburn. Some testimonials you'll find in our guestbook and on <http://www.hotelgracanica.com/mineral-water>, together with the chemical analysis of the water.

We've received so many positive feedbacks for the meze we offer on Saturdays that we now also serve a small selection all week round: fried farmer cheese, urnebes (spicy cheese balls), mini chicken patties (w. meat from free range chicken), macanije (yoghurt with baked peppers & garlic) and barena paprika (spicy pickled peppers). For vegetarians, the chicken patties are replaced by satarash (bell pepper stew). For two people as a starter or one person as a main dish for 5 €. On Saturdays, we of course continue to offer our big meze selection for 8.50 € p.p. More details: <http://www.hotelgracanica.com/restaurant>.

Maybe we now hold the world record in media coverage for a hotel? In the 3 1/2 years since we opened the hotel, 28 media from 9 countries have reported on it and its unusual concept, including the New York Times, the Washington Post, the Neue Zürcher Zeitung, ZDF, the Süddeutsche Zeitung and la Repubblica (s. <http://www.hotelgracanica.com/about-us/media-about-us>).
