

24 January 2019

Dear friends of Hotel Gračanica,

Six of our staff members have been with us for more than five years: Ado, Samira, Zorica, Aziza, Denis and Lidija. Most others for more than three years. But last year saw also, to our regret, two staff members leaving us: Hisen and Elvis. And we had to hire new staff: Dragan is our new waiter, Nikola replaces Elvis as a night receptionist, and Marina is our new kitchen help.

Lower row: Samira, Mira, Aziza, Emanuela, Grada (missing: Dragan and Nikola)*

Last year has been our most successful one up to now, our occupancy rate increased to 34 %, we finally managed to break even and can now hope for a small profit this year, if politics doesn't thwart our plans. In May, June and September, we are already booked out on several days with groups from Switzerland and the UK. So if you are planning a trip to Kosovo this year, it would be a good idea to book now (if your plans change, you can always cancel later), preferably on our website. Until 27 January, you have a chance to win a free one-week stay for two people at our hotel on Instagram, in a campaign by our partner Via Fair Travel. If you would like to try your luck, go to @viafairtravelgifts!

These are the people you might meet at our hotel:

Driton Selmani, one of the best Kosovar artists, has just been featured in the Calvert Journal in an article entitled: "Conceptual artist Driton Selmani is taking his work to the streets of Kosovo". We had an exhibition with his works at the hotel in 2013/14 and two of his installations on show in 2017. One of his works featured in the article, "They say you can't hold two watermelons in one hand", is part of our permanent exhibition, together with other works of his.

Already in November, the British "Independent" published a "Prishtina City Guide: Where to eat, drink, shop and stay in Kosovo's capital" written by Elizabeth Gowing, the founder of "The Ideas Partnership", a great NGO we are partnering with through "Pack for a Purpose". For "where to stay", the article of course recommends us: "The best boutique accommodation in Prishtina is Hotel Gračanica, a short taxi ride from the city centre. Swiss design is stylishly woven with traditional Kosovan features to create an eco-chic modern hotel with a gorgeous pool and views over the archaeological remains of the ancient city of Ulpiana. Doubles from €72, B&B"

As mentioned in our last newsletter, the Jimmy Mustafa Band that plays regularly at our Sunday brunch will go on tour again, from June 7th to 24th in Germany, and in October in Switzerland. If you can organize a concert in your town, please contact us!

German speakers: Auf der Westbalkan-Rundreise von Background-Tours vom 19. Mai bis 2. Juni sind noch Plätze frei. Die Rundreise wird von Heini Conrad, dem langjährigen Landesdirektor Kosovo von Helvetas, und seiner Frau Elisabeth Kästli, Autorin dreier sehr lesenswerter Bücher über den Kosovo, geleitet. Über den Kosovo-Teil der letztjährigen Reise schrieb Bernhard Odehnal im Zürcher Tagesanzeiger: Auf Wandertour im Alpenparadies Kosovo.

Kürzer, auf Pristina beschränkt und ebenfalls sehr empfehlenswert: „Prishtina hautnah“ unter der Leitung von Tanja Polli, Journalistin und Buchautorin, vom 4. bis 8. September. Positive Rückmeldungen erhalten wir auch regelmässig zu den Kultur- und Bildungsreisen Kosovo und/oder Albanien des Journalisten Xhevdet Kallaba. Sie können den Kosovo aber problemlos auch auf eigene Faust erkunden oder sich von uns Tagestouren organisieren lassen.
