HotelGračanica

Dear friends of Hotel Gračanica,

It has been a long time since our last newsletter, and mostly a quiet time at the hotel as a third and fourth wave of the pandemic hit Kosovo. But now, the infection rate is probably the lowest in Europe, with just 6 cases per 100'000 inhabitants in seven days, spring is here, and we hope for a good season. Our hotel remains an ideal place to switch off - many reasons for that in these times - and unwind. For instance this Saturday:

The fabulous Turkish-Kosovar singer Ebru Jilta will perform at the hotel for a small Swiss group, and you are most welcome to join. The concert starts at 20:30 - Swiss time, not Kosovo time, so please don't be late!

Another concert follows just the next day: We'll start again with our Sunday brunch this coming Sunday. And as before, the Jimmy Mustafa Band will play for you from 12 p.m. to 2 p.m. Also as before, you'll find a broad selection of dishes at our self-service buffet: local cheeses and cold cuts, homemade bread and croissants, homemade jams, muesli, soup or salad, several main dishes, desserts and more.

Brunch starts at 11 a.m. and continues until 2 p.m.

Price is 15 € for adults and 1 € per year of age for children up to 14.

Included in the price are fresh juices, mineral water, coffee and tea.

Reservations are highly recommended: tel. 038 729 888 or 049 764 000.

For the concert of Ebru Jilta, we have to thank the Swiss journalist and author Tanja Polli, who again brings us a group from Switzerland for a tour of Kosovo (s. <https://kulturreisen.indyaner.ch/>). It is also thanks to her that we will have one more event this week:

On Friday at 5 p.m., we will, together with 30 children from the Roma community, celebrate the release of the children's book "Aiša", written by our receptionist Aziza Butić (!!!) and illustrated by the great Roma painter Bajram Mehmeti. It is probably the first children's book in Romani language (and with Albanian, Serbian and English translations) published in Kosovo. The book was made possible by the Tanja Polli's Swiss NGO "Verein Sommerschule Kosovo" with the help of private donors. The book release was delayed by the pandemic situation, but is now finally taking place. Aziza Butić, Bajram Mehmeti and Tanja Polli will be present.

If you would like to get more often updates on what is going on at the hotel - and see the new staff photos early on! -, follow us on Facebook, Instagram or Twitter!

Best regards,
